

Under the regulations set forth by the Internal Revenue Service you have the available to have funds withheld from your check on a pre-tax basis for deposit to a 403(b) or 457 retirement annuity account.

If you are not interested in a 403(b) or 457 annuity account mark the not interested box at the top, complete employee information, sign the bottom and date it.

EMPLOYEES UNDER REGULAR CONTRACT (NOT SUPPLEMENTAL)

- Various options are available based on type of contract and employee's decisions regarding health insurance under the Master Contract.

Under IRS Regulations:

EMPLOYEES UNDER SUPPLEMENTAL CONTRACT

- Since supplemental contracts are paid in three (3) installments you can either have a percentage of your check withheld or a fixed amount from each check.

SUBSTITUTE EMPLOYEES

- Substitute employees who choose to have funds withheld from their checks for deposit into a 403(b) or 457 annuity accounts must choose a percentage of their gross check for withholding. Inconsistent work schedules preclude a fixed amount for withholding.
