Hagan Scholarship Foundation

Helping students graduate college debt-free.

The Hagan Scholarship is a nationwide need-based merit scholarship, providing recipients with the opportunity to graduate college debt-free. The scholarship is worth up to $6,000 each semester.

After graduation from college, Hagan Scholars can apply to extend their Hagan Scholarship to attend graduate school or a professional school receiving $6,000 each semester.

Free workshops, Free Schwab Brokerage Accounts and Free Study Abroad provide recipients with a practical understanding of important life skills not typically covered in the school curriculum. Hagan Scholars have attended 429 colleges and universities located in 48 states. Applicants must attend an eligible public high school.

Applicant’s Adjusted Gross Household Income reported for Federal Income Tax Purposes must not exceed $85,000.

Purpose

The Hagan Scholarship is designed to provide each recipient with the opportunity to obtain a four-year college education and graduate debt-free, and the opportunity to obtain a graduate or professional degree. The workshops, study abroad and investment accounts provide recipients with a practical understanding of important life skills not typically covered in the school curriculum.

Purdue University

Recipient Responsibilities

1. Must maintain a 3.25 CGPA and a four year or less graduation schedule.
2. Must earn fourteen credit hours each fall semester and thirty credit hours each academic year excluding summer school.
3. Graduate students must maintain a 3.75 CGPA and earn 12 credit hours each semester.

To be fair to all recipients we will not make exceptions to the scholarship criteria.

Scholarship Particulars

1. The scholarship disbursement amount, up to $6,000 each semester, will be determined by HSF by taking the Total Cost of Attendance including tuition, fees, room, board, books, supplies, personal and transportation costs; then deducting the total dollar amount of ALL scholarships, awards, grants, waivers and one-half of recipient's EFC. Parents are not required to pay the EFC, the EFC is used only to determine the disbursement amount.
2. The disbursement amount will be adjusted each semester to offset the expiration or loss of other scholarships, awards, grants, waivers and changes in the recipient's EFC.
3. The scholarship is renewable for up to seven additional consecutive semesters if the recipient fulfills the scholarship criteria and mandatory workshop responsibilities.
4. First year recipients receive $1,000 prior to college enrollment to purchase essential items for college not covered by the scholarship; computer, cell phone, clothing, office supplies, bedding, etc.
5. Second year recipients are provided with a $1,000 personal brokerage account, and a $20,000 HSF brokerage account to manage until graduation, in order to learn first-hand how to invest to achieve financial security.
6. Third year recipients achieving a 3.50 CGPA are eligible for an all-expense paid study and travel abroad experience worth up to $8,000 or the funds can be used to study abroad for one semester.
7. Recipients must work 240 hours each year, from January 1 until commencement of the fall semester in college. Employment must be regularly scheduled work performed under supervision for compensation.
8. Recipients graduating college with a 3.75 GPA can apply to extend their Hagan Scholarship for up to four additional consecutive semesters to attend graduate school or a professional school receiving $6,000 each semester.
9. There is no application fee or processing fee.
